

WINONA DYSLEXIA GROUP

Tuition Scholarship Form
Please print clearly

Tuition Scholarships are rewarded to qualified applicants who will be offering their newly learned skills to the students at Winona Dyslexia Group. Tutors will be assisting students' grades k-3 helping them learn valuable reading and comprehension skills. Qualified individuals will be patient, good with kids, and have some experience working with young children. Teaching experience is preferred but isn't necessary.

The Reading Center of Rochester, MN is offering the Basic Training Institute course How to Teach Reading, and the Winona Dyslexia Group would like to offer those who qualify a chance to participate in this credit-transferable course. The course will provide training in the Orton-Gillingham teaching approach using scientifically based reading instruction. Throughout this course, you will learn the basic approach, the structure of the English language, and finally, how to apply what you have learned by creating lesson plans and teaching them to a child.

Qualified applicants will pay a $100 pre-registration fee at the time of registration. (This fee is non-refundable) All other tuition costs will be paid for by the Winona Dyslexia Group. The course is intensive and a serious commitment is required to participate in training at the Reading Center. If you are interested in registering for this helpful course and offering your teaching skills to the Winona Dyslexia Group, please sign and complete the form below. All tutors must also sign, complete and turn in the attached application.

Applications can be mailed to:

The Winona Dyslexia Group
PO Box 869
Winona, MN 55987
